The terms private school and independent school are often used interchangeably and clarity between the two is critical. Independent schools are self-governing in mission and education and fund their own tuition, whereas independent schools are self-governing in mission and education, and fund their own tuition. Independent schools are a unique subset of private schools that are non-profit, self-determining in mission and program, and self-sustaining. BISHOP SEABURY ACADEMY offers a culture of honor and responsibility where students actively strive to be good citizens and friends.

The Seabury community is defined by excellence, respect, and mutual support.

- Daily all-school morning meeting sets the tone for the day and brings students closer together
- Students meet daily with their assigned advising group representing various grades allowing guidance and mentorship throughout the students’ time at Seabury.

These unique features of the Seabury community are warmly embraced by students and teachers and create an energetic and supportive environment.
THE SEABURY CULTURE

stresses individual initiative and responsibility, and students are called upon daily to take leadership roles in social, academic, and extracurricular contexts.

Community service unifies students, connects them to the local and global community, and helps them to develop civic responsibility.

Each student is involved in annual community service at area churches, community centers, parks, shelters, schools, as well as with other non-profit organizations that are important to the students and their families.

Additionally, students are encouraged to participate in various clubs and member organizations. Students serve formally as senators, senior prefects, team captains, and directors of theatre productions.

BISHOP SEABURY ACADEMY PRAYER

“Grant to us, Lord we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right.”

Students at Seabury study the world’s religions and ethical traditions rigorously and with respect. Each student’s experience of Seabury will push them to wrestle with the biggest questions of meaning and value in life, and come to some answers by way of classes, chapel, service, and self-reflection. At Seabury, each person is nurtured not only academically but also physically, emotionally, and spiritually.
BISHOP SEABURY’S TRADITION of academic excellence is the result of exceptional faculty and individualized attention to students.

Eighty percent of faculty hold advanced degrees.
• Average classroom size of 12-15 students leads to rich classroom discussion and individual academic growth.
• Students at all grade levels prepare for and take various exams that colleges use to evaluate students, ranging from preliminary exams to Advanced Placement exams.
• 1:1 iPad Initiative allows teachers to customize instruction to meet the needs of individual students across a number of subject areas, including access to online resources and textbooks.
• Experienced and engaging educators inspire both middle and upper school students.

MIDDLE SCHOOL
Seabury Middle School students continue to qualify for the Duke University Talent Identification Program, achieving student and national recognition for their academic merits.
Beginning in 6th grade, the Seabury curriculum appeals to students with various skill levels. The curriculum provides effective study habits and a fundamental understanding of core subject matter. Throughout middle school, students learn to be creative and critical thinkers, capable of adapting to new academic and social situations.

UNDER SCHOOL
Our upper school expands on this foundation with a robust college preparatory program.
Our honors courses are tailored to challenge students at advanced levels of intellectual study. Seabury Upper School students:
• Receive individualized college counseling
• Participate in national language exams resulting in state and national placements • Receive acceptances to an impressive array of colleges and universities across the country and even abroad
ATHLETICS
Seabury has a proud program of competitive sports in middle and upper school including basketball, cheerleading, cross-country, golf, soccer, tennis, and volleyball.

Seabury is a member of the Kansas State High School Activities Association.

Our teams compete in the Kansas City metro and northeast Kansas region. Colleges continue to actively recruit Seabury’s student athletes, and all students have the opportunity to play for their entire school career.

ARTS
Seabury is home to an exceptional fine arts program. Students create works to display and perform annually in the community.

Our arts program is an ambitious one.
• Theatre department produces 5 shows each year
• Highly competitive debate and forensics teams
• Choral groups perform throughout the year and compete at yearly festivals
